“Sharing my love of music with the world is my goal. I like to combine my love of rock and country music to create a bit of an edge.”

You may recognize Carmel from her extensive touring with Miley Cyrus, Michael Bolton, Luis Miguel and Johnny Hallyday. She has appeared as a backing vocalist on shows such as American Idol, The Voice, Dancing with the Stars and many others. Carmel Helene began her singing career doing session work for national commercials and television and has also contributed to a number of film recordings. That led her to write, record and produce her 2010 self-titled debut EP, Carmel Helene. But it was rock, not country and not what Carmel ultimately wanted. In 2013 Carmel set out to focus on her pursuit of country. As luck would have it, during a performance in Nashville, investor Eliot Shatzman, founder of independent record label Shatz Music Group, took notice of Carmel’s powerful voice, strong performance, exotic looks and rapport with the audience. Shatzman signed her immediately and began work on Carmel Helene’s recently released EP New Frontier, produced by Jim Kimball (Reba McEntire, Brad Paisley, Toby Keith, Faith Hill, Garth Brooks). Carmel has played across the country, from L.A. to Nashville to D.C. and is adored by fans wherever she goes.
